For Immediate Release, 9/16/18:

“Eternally Unforgiven” - A Lilituan Black Mass, St. Louis Cathedral Basilica
Performed September 14th, 2018

The Ordo Sororitatis Satanicae (“Order of Satanic Sisterhood,” or OSS for short) is an organization of feminist Satanists, including male, transgender, and non-binary members. Our mascot is Lilith, from apocryphal tales of the Garden of Eden. She is the archetype of the defiant woman who will suffer no yoke nor bend a knee to any man.

The Order, formed on the 11th of March 2017, accepts as its duties:

- * To Witness the deeds of the powerful who seek to harm others by legislating their own bigotry and religious beliefs;
- * To Measure those deeds, determining their impact upon the marginalized and the disenfranchised;
- * To Declare every foul act of those parties, publicizing their atrocities and hypocrisy.

These three duties, known as The Three Great Acts, are the core principles of our Order.

By exposing detestable abuses of power, we hope to encourage the public to choose better leaders. We defend the vulnerable and the marginalized, using theater and dramatic constructs to inspire others and to advance our positions.

The Roman Catholic Church claims it is in “spiritual crisis,” embattled by demons and the supposedly maladjusted. However, the crisis is of the Church's own making, the demons are imaginary, and the only maladjustment is its own policy of preying upon the weak.

The Roman Catholic Church recently held a "Forgiveness Mass" after the disclosure of a vast coverup of pedophilia, child-trafficking, molestation, and exploitation. The mass was held at the Cathedral Church of Saint Patrick on Friday, August 17th 2018 in Harrisburg Pennsylvania and was officiated by Bishop Ronald Gainer, a man who appears to have been an ongoing enabler of the abuses which occurred within his own Arch Diocese. This pompous display of self-forgiveness is outrageous. The Church refuses to take responsibility for its crimes, instead blaming demons, the LGBTQIA community, women, and even their own victims.

The OSS will not countenance these perpetrators, nor their pretense of piety. Perhaps their demented deity will forgive them. We will not.
